- 25X1X 1. Fidel Castro Ruz, Enrique Ovaroa, Alfredo Guevara, and Rafael del Pino have returned from Bogota to Havana [REDACTED] the youth meeting to which they went was sponsored by the recently assassinated Gaitan. Gaitan is alleged to have planned a youth demonstration against non-Latin influence in Latin and South American countries, to take place during the Bogota conference while all the delegates of the Pan-American nations were present. The participants from Cuba and other countries were to be non-Communists.
- 25X1X 2. The Argentine delegates originally destined for Bogota changed their travel plans and went to Havana because of the Bogota uprising. The Argentine delegation is listed as: Juan Rubio of the Medical Students Center; Dr. Emilio Carrillo Ruiz, president of the Cuban-Argentine Institute; Pedro Casaballo, president of the Association of Students of the Faculty of Economic Sciences; and Guillermo Vallati, president of the Association of Law Students. [REDACTED] the Argentine delegates are not Communists, but are rather of "rightist" tendencies.
